

ICHTHUS

SUNDAY 22 AUGUST 2021

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Year B

Come, Holy Spirit, and fill me with your power.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Turn your ear, O Lord, and answer me;
save the servant who trusts in you, my God.
Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

COLLECT

O God, who cause the minds of the faithful to unite in a single purpose, grant your people to love what you command
and to desire what you promise, that, amid the uncertainties of this world,
our hearts may be fixed on that place
where true gladness is found...

JOSHUA 24:1-2. 15-18

Having been wandering in the desert for forty years, Joshua has brought the Israelites to the Promised Land. Now
he has an important question for them. Joshua gathers all the people together and asks if they going to serve God or turn to the gods of the neighbouring tribes?

The Israelites are clear.
They have no intention of deserting the God who has saved them, looked after them on their journeying and brought them to safety. They will serve the Lord, their God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PSALM 33

Taste and see that the Lord is good.

SECOND READING EPHESIANS 5:21-32

When Paul was writing this letter to the Christians in Ephesus, women did not enjoy the same rights as today. Although we might question some of Paul's ideas, he is actually challenging people at that time – as well as giving us something to think about. Men and women should treat each other with mutual love and respect. Real love for someone else means putting them before ourselves. Jesus shows us how to put love into action and we want to follow him.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Your words are spirit, Lord,
and they are life:
you have the message of eternal life.
Alleluia!

We say these words or sing a hymn as the priest approaches
the altar.

We ask for God's help.
Listen now to the priest as he offers
this prayer.

LOOK at the reader
and LISTEN.
Will the Israelites
make a choice for God
or not?

The cantor or psalmist sings or says the psalm.
Listen to the verses,
and then respond by using these words.

LOOK at the reader
and LISTEN.
Jesus loves the Church just as a husband and a wife
love each other.

We give a shout of praise to God, using these words taken from the Bible.

DO YOU KNOW?

Tuesday 24 August is the feast of St Bartholomew, Apostle. He was one of Jesus' twelve special friends and is sometimes thought to be called Nathaniel in John's Gospel.
We don't know much about Bartholomew, but believe he spread the message of God's love until he was killed because of his faith in Jesus.

THINK

Joshua asked the Israelites to make a choice: to serve God or not. We might make a big choice for God, perhaps when we are preparing to be confirmed.
But every day we make little choices for God. Will we make the choice to be kind,
to stand up for someone or
to help out at home?

GOSPEL JOHN 6:60-69

The Good News about Jesus is told to us by St John.

Many of the people listening to Jesus cannot accept his teaching. It is all too much for them and makes no sense. Jesus knows that they are not happy and tells them that everything he says is true. Some of Jesus' disciples are still unhappy. Many of them leave Jesus at this point and stop following him. So Jesus turns to his twelve special friends and asks them if they are going to leave as well? Simon Peter answers for them all. They are going nowhere. They believe Jesus. Jesus has the words of eternal life. Jesus is the Holy One of God.

STAND to LISTEN to the priest or deacon as he prepares to read the Gospel. What does the priest or deacon do to the book when he has finished reading the Gospel?

Listen to the reader as he or she encourages us to pray for situations and people in need. This is a prayer you could say privately.

Watch as the gifts are made ready and the priest washes his hands and prepares for the Eucharistic Prayer.

We listen to the prayer of praise and thanks to God.

You are invited to sing a Communion song or say this verse, which has been especially chosen for today's celebration.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Dear Lord, I would like to pray for anyone who is facing a difficult choice today. Help them to see clearly what is true and right. Lord, hear my prayer.

OFFERTORY PROCESSION

As we take our gifts of bread, wine and money to the altar, think about a sad time this week and then think about a time when you were happy and enjoying life.

Say a little prayer offering these thoughts up to God.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Today's special prayer thanks God for fulfilling all God's promises to us.

What can you give special thanks for today?

THE LORD'S PRAYER

As the priest extends his hands, we say the prayer that Jesus taught us.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The earth is replete with the fruits of your work, O Lord; you bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer the heart.

MY PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Thank you, Jesus, for showing me the truth of your love. Help me to always stay close to you. Amen.

We take Jesus with us to carry on the work that he did on earth, until we meet again next Sunday.

Go in peace.

PRAY

"The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save." Talk to God about any sadness in your life. Ask God to bless anyone you know who is sad. Trust in God's healing love.

DO

Serve God today by choosing to speak kindly to the people you meet - especially the people you live with.

IXΘΥΣ

is the Greek word for "fish" and was used in the catacombs as a sign for early Christians. It is made up from the first letter of five Greek titles for the Lord:

- I (Jesus)
- X (Christos)
- Θ (Theou/God's)
- Υ (Uios/Son)
- Σ (Soter/Saviour)
